Dear President Bush:

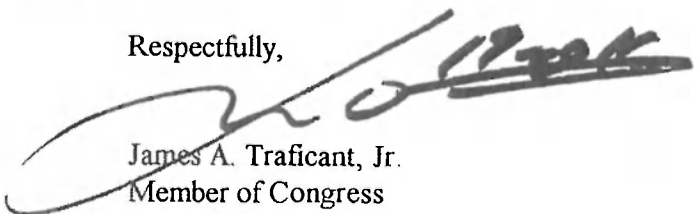

I am writing to request that a presidential pardon be granted to Mr. Michael Terlecky of Canfield, Ohio. A formal pardon request has already been submitted.

Michael was found in violation of federal gambling laws in the Eastern District of Ohio for offenses committed in 1986. His time was served from November of 1990 until August of 1991 and he received no further probation.

Michael has served his punishment and done so without complaint. He has recognized and acknowledged his mistakes. However, 15 years after his committed offenses and ten years after the completion of his sentence, this charge continues to affect his personal and professional life. Michael has been an honest and upstanding member of our society ever since. He is a good family man and deserves to have his name cleared.

For these reasons, I am respectfully requesting you to grant Michael Terlecky a Presidential Pardon for his past mistakes. Should you have any questions or need further information, please contact me at 202-225-5261. Thank you for your expeditious response.

Respectfully,

James A. Traficant, Jr.
Member of Congress

Dear President Bush:

I am writing to request that a presidential pardon be granted to Mr. Pat Traficant of Henderson, Nevada. A formal pardon application is currently on file.

Pat was convicted of violating federal gambling laws in the Eastern District of Ohio on the sixth of February, 1974. He was sentenced to five years probation and fined $5,000. His probation was served and completed in February of 1979, and the fine was paid in full by the same date.

Pat has served his punishment and done so without complaint. He has recognized and acknowledged his mistakes. However, twenty-five years after his sentencing and twenty years after the completion of his sentence, this charge continues to affect his personal and professional life. Pat served his country for six years as part of the National Guard, and has been an honest and upstanding member of our society ever since. He is a good family man and deserves to have his name cleared.

For these reasons, I am respectfully requesting you to grant Pat Traficant a Presidential Pardon for his past mistakes. Should you have any questions or need further information, please contact me at 202-225-5261. Thank you for your expeditious response.

Respectfully,
